

HSAB32

HSAB32 HIGH-SPEED ASSAULT BOAT

The HSAB32 forms an integral component of the CMN's Sea-Proven High-Speed Interceptor family. This vessel has been meticulously engineered as a stealthy high-speed craft capable of performing the tasks required by a High-Speed Assault Boat's mission profile.

MAIN CHARACTERISTICS

- | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------|
| • Length Overall | 31.9 m |
| • Beam Overall | 7.1 m |
| • Maximum speed | 45 Knots |
| • Range at 50 Knots | 600 NM |
| • Crew | 11 |
| • Embarked personnel | 50 |
| • Fuel | 25 m ³ |
| • Hull/Superstructure | Aluminum |
| • Classification | Bureau Veritas |

MISSIONS

- Maritime police and maritime security
- Power projections
- General assault operations
- Surveillance and reconnaissance
- Support of Naval Special Operation forces
- Fight against piracy and terrorism

